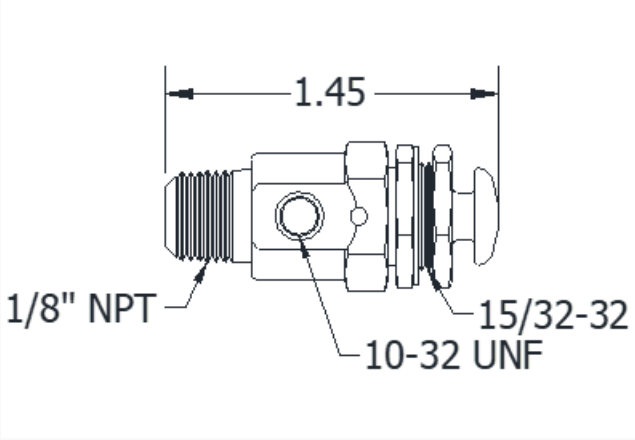
Interference Control Valve

The Interference Control Valve is a 2 port 2 way, normally closed, spring return push button valve. The valve can be used to trap downstream pressure and exhaust when the valve is pushed in. Common use includes actuation by means of a cabinet door. The valve is easily attached via the supplied lock nuts and lock washers.


Part Number	Description
IC17128BR	Interference Control